

Micro-Mentorship Activity

A simple conversation can change a career—are you in?

Join this quick, low-commitment mentorship activity at the Health Innovators Rendezvous on May 21, 2025! Students and early-career professionals are paired with experienced professionals for a brief, meaningful career conversation.

- Expand Your Network – Make valuable professional connections.
- Gain Insight – Share or receive career advice and industry perspectives.
- Build Confidence – Navigate the event with ease.

Mentors commit to a short discussion and one introduction—no ongoing commitment required. You can arrange a meet-up time that works for you. Mentors are not expected to remain with mentees for the entire evening.

Interested? Sign-up when you register for the Health Innovators Rendezvous. Those who opt in or request more info will receive full details before the event.
